Catholic Movie Night
The Age of Innocence
Saturday, March 14

This 1993 film is perhaps even more relevant today as it asks the question why can't we just love who we want? Different from our world, this is a world where social norms rule and guardrails are fixed. Based on Edith Whorton's novel, it's a sumptuous period piece set in late 19th century Manhattan high society.

Lisa and I are hosting the film at our home on Saturday March 14. Please come at 6:00 PM for some fellowship before the film starts. RSVP if you are coming to Michael Sapienza at (734) 572-6471

Note: This film is not for children below high school age.

From Father Pieter

Greetings! Today we hear about Jesus' "Transfiguration," when Jesus manifested the glory of God before three of his apostles. Significantly, this came right after Jesus predicted his crucifixion and death. What was Jesus showing them? What does Jesus show us? Despite the darkness of the cross, Jesus is Lord. The Mass invites us to trust and Hope in God no matter the darkness or pain we face. At Mass today we worship our glorious Lord veiled under the appearances of the Eucharist.

What is Happening at St. Joseph?

DSA: We begin our DSA appeal today. Thank you for all of your support for Saints and Scholars this Fall (and continuing for some of us for the next four years!). Thank you in advance for your support of the Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA). Just as God asked Abraham to "go out" in faith to lead His people, the Lord sends us out to serve the needs of others—and we do that through the DSA, which supports, among other things, prison ministry, counseling services, regional food banks, Catholic Charities, and more. Our goal is $32,474. Thank you for supporting our parish and our diocese with this annual appeal.
